

weekend
Program Line-Up
saturday-sunday

WRBZ-AM has the freshest and most innovative programming in the market. From our high-profile syndicated features like Imus and Jim Rome to the most creative local talent, WRBZ has become the radio station that delivers original talk targeted at Men in the Triangle.

Saturday
9am-12pm

Sports Saturday

Bomani Jones is a writer based in Durham, NC. Since 2000, he has written about sports, music, politics, and more. He is best known for his contributions to ESPN.com, where he was a columnist at "Page 2". Bomani has been featured on ESPN's "Outside the Lines" with Bob Ley and ESPNNews "4 Quarters."
Bomani graduated from Clark Atlanta University. He's completed a master's in politics, economics and business from Claremont and in 2005 completed a master's in economics at UNC - Chapel Hill.

Sunday
8am-10am

Computers 2K8

Now in its 15th year, Computers 2K8 is the only locally hosted computer show in the Raleigh-Durham area. Hosted by Amnon Nissan, listeners discuss the latest trends in the computer industry.

Sunday
10am-12pm

Sports Sunday with Gordon Miller

Gordon Miller brings an extensive knowledge of sports to those waking up on Sunday morning. Whether Gordon is live from Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte prior to a Panthers game, or in the confines of our Raleigh studios, you'll be ready game day when you tune into Sports Sunday.

Play-by-Play

Pick the season-we deliver it all! From football and basketball from Duke and East Carolina Universities, to NFL Football action with the Carolina Panthers, Sports Radio 850 the Buzz has the regional teams covered!